Mountain Line Begins Service to Washington, Pa

MORGANTOWN – Mountain Line is expanding its services by including a new drop-off and pick-up location in Washington, Pennsylvania. Beginning on Monday, October 3rd the Grey Line service to Pittsburgh will leave Morgantown, stop in Waynesburg, Pennsylvania, make another stop in Waynesburg, and continue on to the Pittsburgh Greyhound bus station and the Pittsburgh International Airport.

Arrival times in Washington will be at 9:05 a.m. Northbound and 11:05 p.m. Southbound during the morning trip. Riders can expect to arrive at 6:35 p.m. Northbound and 9:45 p.m. Southbound on the evening trip. The bus will take Interstate 79 Exit 20 and will service the Park & Ride on East Beau Street.

From those who travel the Grey Line frequently, Mountain Line offers a “Monthly Monster Pass” with unlimited rides on all local routes and all Grey Line runs. This non-transferable pass is available for purchase online at www.ridegreyline.org. There is also a list of complete schedules and additional details for these new services at that website.

For information on all the Mountain Line bus routes and schedules, call 304-291-RIDE or visit www.busride.org. For live tracking of the Grey Line bus and all Mountain Line routes, download the Bus Finder Mobile app or follow each route on twitter, @ML29grey.
